

The meeting is for the Jennings Crossing subdivision for currently duplex style town home and the option of a single family home on any of the existing lots with a side setback of 5' either side.